Here, people can feel a sense of belonging and build meaningful friendships.

Becoming a resident at Coroneagh Park does not mean severing ties with your existing lifestyle. Maintaining community involvement is something that we support and is a big part of life here. We encourage our residents to be as actively involved as they wish to be, while ensuring everyone's personal space is respected.

Staying connected

Friends and family can visit Coroneagh Park at any time. However, we understand that it might not always be possible. For added peace of mind, remote video calls are always available so that you can stay connected with family and friends. Our team is skilled to assist with technology to set up a successful video call or assist in facilitating a visit from your loved ones, whenever you like.

Our history

Officially opened on 8th February 1997, Coroneagh Park was a joint project between Eliza Purton Home and the Commonwealth Government.

In December 2017 the $9 million redevelopment was opened, increasing the number of beds from 45 to 78 with the addition of a dedicated 15-bed secure dementia ward, cinema, library, cafe, gardens, and community centre space.

Nestled in the heart of the quiet town of Penguin, on the northwest coast of Tasmania, Coroneagh Park's seaside placement is rich with open spaces and relaxing beaches.

With its state-of-the-art redevelopment and thoughtful design, Coroneagh Park sets the benchmark for facilities in the area. Dedicated to providing exceptional care for the elderly, the team at Coroneagh Park now consists of registered nurses available on call 24 hours a day and social care teams focused on curating a wide range of events and activities to inspire participation, promote wellbeing, as well as connection with the local community.

Steps on the path to aged care living

Before becoming a resident at Coroneagh Park, it's important for you and your loved ones to have an open, honest discussion about your needs and budget. For many, moving to residential aged care can be a significant lifestyle change that comes with many questions. Before you begin your journey, there are a couple of steps you can take to assess if this is the right move for you.

1. Determine your eligibility

To determine if you're eligible for aged care, you will need to be assessed by the Aged Care Assessment Service (ACAS) through My Aged Care, the Australian Government body responsible for aged care services.

This can be organised through a doctor, social worker, or health professional. For more information on Aged Care Assessments, you can speak with your doctor or a member of our helpful Customer Service team on 1300 144 144.

2. Find the right home

Everyone is different and that's why an aged care home that's a perfect fit for one person isn't necessarily the perfect fit for another.

Finding the right aged care home is all about personal preferences, specific requirements, and aesthetic taste. That's why at Respect, we create our homes to offer something for everyone and to be as accommodating as possible.

You can book a tour of Coroneagh Park, or any of our Respect aged care homes to allow you to speak with residents and members of staff to provide a well-rounded view of what we offer.

3. Understand costs

Your own personal circumstances and financial situation will influence the amount you pay for an aged care facility. The Government determines how much you pay or may be required to contribute.

To better understand the costs associated with residential aged care, we recommend seeking financial advice before applying. The cost of residential aged care consists of care fees and accommodation fees, which are explained below:

- Basic daily fee: This fee covers living costs, such as meals, electricity, and laundry.
- Means-based fee: This fee is calculated by the Department of Human Services based on your income and assets and is a contribution to the cost of your personal and clinical care.
- Accommodation payment: Paid through an upfront amount, daily payment or a combination of both, this cost includes the room that you will occupy.
- Additional service fee: Some services are included in our Additional Services package, which incurs a mandatory additional fee. Additional Services packages are offered in selected Respect Aged Care homes, for a full list of services and their estimated costs, please contact us.

4. Apply to live at Coroneagh Park

After determining your eligibility and understanding fees, all prospective residents need to complete and submit an application. You may fill out an application in person at any of our homes. We recommend that you fill out an application with the assistance of your doctor and/or loved ones.

5. Move in

As soon as we've determined that we can meet your needs and have a suitable vacancy, you will be notified with an offer of residence, along with a move-in date. If there are no current vacancies, we'll let you know when a space becomes available. You will be provided with a Resident Agreement, which outlines the services, fees, rights, and responsibilities. This legal document will need to be signed and returned before moving in.

We're here, every step of the way

At Respect, we know that choosing the right aged care home can be a daunting task. We can help with navigating the assessment process and the necessary paperwork to make your transition to residential aged care a breeze.
